

Special features of expanding plugs:

- provided with a conical inner side, expanding equally against the wall of the hole during tightening
- application for installation through the fixture hole
- they can be applied in concrete, stone, bricks, tiles and massive wood
- resistant against corrosion
- resistant against temperatures up to 200°C

