

Special features of inserts:

- are highly suitable to provide soft materials like plastic, wood, chipboard and aluminium with strong ISO-metric thread in a fast and efficient way.
- during assembly the teeth are anchoring into the wall of the hole.
- the connection is self-locking against vibrations and shocks.
- Type E (shorter version of type D) with two rows of teeth may be used for wood, larger forces and frequent disassembly.

